Amendments proposed by Fellow Members will be reviewed and voted upon by the Board of Directors. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote by the Board of Directors will be required to place the proposed amendment for consideration by the membership. The Board of Directors can amend the proposed amendments, as can the membership.

SECTION B. ASSOCIATION APPROVAL

Notice of any proposed amendments to these Bylaws shall be given to all members entitled to vote at least ninety (90) days prior to a vote by the membership. If mailed, the notice of proposed amendments shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid, addressed to the Member at Member's address as it appears on the records of the Association. If sent by electronic mail, the notice of proposed amendments shall be deemed delivered when directed to an electronic mail address at which the Member has consented to receive notice. A vote may be conducted by ballot distributed by mail or electronic mail to all members entitled to vote or may be conducted at a general business meeting of the Association.

1. For a vote conducted by ballot, approval shall require a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the responding members of the entire membership entitled to vote when written notice of the proposed changes has been given to the voting members at least ninety (90) days prior to the ballot receipt deadline.
2. For a vote conducted at a general business meeting of the Association, approval shall require a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of those present at a General Business Meeting and entitled to vote when written notice of the proposed changes has been given to the voting members at least ninety (90) days prior to the meeting date.

ARTICLE IX. CONTRACTUAL ARRANGEMENTS

The Board shall be authorized to employ an Executive Director who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the Association. The Executive Director shall possess such authority and be subject to whatever limitations the Board may impose. The Executive Director shall be delegated authority to act for and on behalf of the Association. The Executive Director may delegate to any other employee such responsibilities as he or she shall deem appropriate. The Executive Director shall be a non-voting ex-officio member of the Association Board of Directors. Ex-officio members of the Board shall not attend executive sessions of the Board except by specific invitation. The Association may enter into contractual arrangements with independent contractors for purposes of, but not limited to, meeting arrangements, accounting, secretarial assistance and legal counsel. Any contract must be signed by the President and Secretary of the Association. In the absence of either the President or Secretary, the First Vice-President is empowered to act in that person's place. The authority to sign contracts may be delegated by the Board of Directors to the Executive Director.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION

The Board of Directors shall exercise the full extent of the powers which the Association has under Illinois law, as such law exists from time to time, to indemnify any director, member, committee member, officer, employee or agent for expenses incurred by reason of the fact that he is or was director, member, officer, employee or agent of this Association or of another society which he may have served in such capacity at the request of this Association. Such expenses shall include attorney's fees, judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and amounts otherwise reasonably incurred. The Board of Directors may make advances against such expenses upon terms decided by it. The Board of Directors may exercise the full extent of the power which the Association has under the Illinois law, as such a law exists from time to time, to purchase and maintain insurance against risks above described on behalf of any director, member, officer, employee or agent.

ARTICLE XI. CONFORMITY TO LAW

In the event that any provision of these Bylaws shall not conform to provisions of the laws of the United States or the state of Illinois, the law shall take precedence.
